

Motor Cycle Union of Ireland (Ulster Centre) Safety Committee Competitor Safety Seminars 2018

These are the dates of the 2018 Competitor Safety Seminars, for which attendance is mandatory, before a competition licence is issued.

It is important that each attendee provides the necessary signatures to ensure as far as possible that our Duty of Care is fulfilled and recorded.

Each Seminar will contain instruction on our mandatory anti-doping policy and the usual flag/signals training.

The Seminars will be held in the Chimney Corner Hotel; Glengormley, on the following dates and times.

Competitors (Surnames A-G)	07 Jan. 2018	Commencing 1.30 p.m.
Competitors (Surnames H-L)	07 Jan. 2018	Commencing 3.30 p.m.
Competitors (Surnames M-O)	14 Jan. 2018	Commencing 1.30 p.m.
Competitors (Surnames P-Z)	14 Jan. 2018	Commencing 3.30 p.m.

For those who cannot attend on the above dates, additional Seminars will be held at the forthcoming NI Motorcycle Festival on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th. February 2018. Exact times will be decided at the event.

Each competitor attending these additional Seminars will be granted half price admission to the show. Please bring your 2017 licences with you for purposes of identification.

The provisional dates and times are as follows:

2 nd . Feb.. 2018	7.00pm
3 rd Feb. 2018	11.00 am	3.00 pm
4 th .Feb. 2018	11.00 am	1.00 pm

Attention Competitors: When attending a Seminar, please allow time to sign on and register.

No other seminars are planned for 2018.

For any further information, please ring me on 02892 661513 or Davy Patterson on 02897 519722

John Atcheson
Convenor
Ulster Centre Safety Committee